the Maharaja of Mysore, Revenue Department,

Bangalore.

Sir,

With reference to Government Order No. [illegible] dated 1st instant on file, forwarding a petition from the Inhabitants of [illegible] reporting the occurrence of theft of [illegible] and requesting a Constable in the village Police, I have the honor to state that the submission of the report to Government appears to have been necessary as this is a Village Police institution. Needful action can be taken by me during the inspection noticed by Government by calling for further report from the Deputy Commissioner on the receipt of the articles stolen. This final report was received in this office on the 10th August and thereupon the police clearance was submitted to Government for information. In future reports of theft in village institutions should also be submitted immediately to Government on receipt of information from Deputy Commissioners, that will be noted for future guidance

I have the honor to be,

Sir,
